

ARSENAL HOME LEARNING

CREATIVE CHALLENGE EVANS ELEVEN

Lisa Evans is a great player and can play in lots of different positions. But how good would a whole team of Lisas be? Would the Evans Eleven be a competitive team? Join the debate by writing a persuasive argument for and against the following statement:

A TEAM WITH LISA EVANS IN EVERY POSITION WOULD EASILY WIN THE WSL.

Then make your final decision in a conclusion! Don't forget to look at the example below and the Pro Tips for some help.

FOR

AND

AGAINST

I believe that Lisa Evans is such a versatile player and talented player that the Evans Eleven would easily win the WSL.

Firstly.....
.....
.....

You could use some of these points:

- Lisa is very fast.
- Her fitness levels are very high.
- She can play in defence and attack.

In my opinion a team made up of eleven Lisas would not have all the attributes to win the WSL.

Undoubtedly.....
.....
.....

You could use some of these points:

- The WSL is very competitive.
- Lisa is not the tallest player so may struggle to defend from corners.
- She may not be a good goalkeeper.

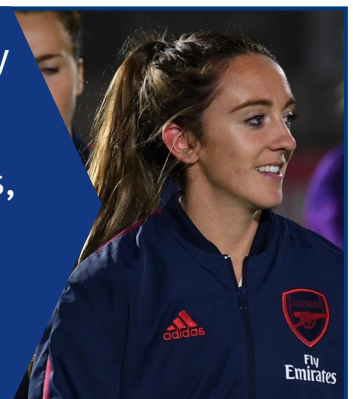

CONCLUSION: In conclusion, I believe that a team with Lisa Evans in every position would.....

PRO TIPS

BOTH SIDES – Even if you've made your mind up, think very hard about the pros and cons of both sides.

EVIDENCE – Try to add evidence to back up your arguments, you can make it up!

USE PERSUASIVE LANGUAGE – Firstly..., In my opinion..., In addition..., Clearly..., Undoubtedly..., etc.

SHARE YOUR ARGUMENT WITH US! Ask an adult to share your persuasive argument on Twitter using #AFCHomeLearning.