THE HISTORY: On 4th May 1994, David Seaman made some fantastic saves as Arsenal won the European Cup Winners' Cup final against Parma. Alan Smith scored the only goal in the 1-0 win.

Watch the highlights video and think about how it would have felt to win the final.

THE CHALLENGE: Imagine you are David. You have just got home after the final against Parma and you write about your day. Write a diary entry about your incredible, cup-winning performance. Use the 'What to include' section, the example and the Pro Tips to help you!

WHAT TO INCLUDE: Make sure you answer these questions in your diary entry:

- What happened?
- Who was there?
- How did you feel?
- Why was it so special?

Use our Writing Template or write on plain paper.

THE EXAMPLE:

Dear Diary,

Yes! We did it! We won the final against Parma and I didn't concede a goal! I'm so happy and proud of the team. I want to write everything down now so I don't forget a moment of today.

We got to the stadium an hour before kick off, I warmed up with Tony Adams and Steve Bould as normal.....

PRO TIPS

TENSE – Remember, the match has already happened. Anything you write about it must be in the past tense.

CHRONOLOGICAL – Write the events in the order that they happened.

TIME CONNECTIVES – Use time connectives such as: first, finally, after that, an hour before, suddenly, eventually, since etc.
